

Union Friendly

At JA we encourage an open and transparent workplace where employee happiness and safety are of primary importance. Professional and interpersonal grievances taken very seriously, and we strive to be proactive in creating a workplace where all employees are valued and their voices heard. We support the right of our employees to self-organize and to form or join a union.