

Local Control

JA seeks to improve the community in which we do business, through our work and through our commitment to community organizations and causes. A sense of community in stills much of our work and we are dedicated to having local control of our firm. JA's leadership will reside in the community in which we maintain our office. We encourage all staff to live where they work and participate within that community.