

Charitable Giving

JA is committed to giving back to our community and to making the world safer, greener, and more equitable. Through volunteering, fundraising, donations, and leadership within charitable organizations JA not only contributes expertise but gains a connection to socially responsible causes that helps to inform us as designers. JA also provides pro-bono services to non-profit and socially responsible organizations. We target 1% of our annual net revenue to charitable giving each calendar year.