

Responsible Investing Policy

Schemata Workshop is dedicated to demonstrating socially responsible investing practices and advocacy. That means investing in businesses that are human rights compliant and that support and protect employees and their families. It means investing in businesses that follow progressive, sustainable practices that contribute to sustainable economies, communities, and societies.

Schemata Workshop utilizes the services of Umpqua Bank and 1st Security Bank for day to day operations.

Robertson | Das Socially Responsible Investing provides retirement planning services.