

Charitable Giving

VMDO is dedicated to giving back to our communities where we live and work through volunteer time and charitable donations. VMDO's community involvement lends expertise and collaboration to the concerns of places where we live and do business, and it brings greater public awareness to the capabilities of architects, interior designers, landscape architects, and planners. VMDO annually supports non-profit organizations working in support of the arts, our communities, the environment, and education.