

Employee Unionization Policy

Energy Opportunities policy regarding unions is, it does not resist or is not against unions. Since Energy Opportunities is a small firm with five employees excluding the owner, it maintains an open door policy where employees may arrange with the owner a convenient time to discuss any employee issues. The firm also allows employees a flexible work schedule so that they may adjust their work schedule to resolve personal issues as situations warrant.