

Continuing Education

Plant Solutions, Inc values employee development through professional education.

Plant Solutions, Inc provides a compensation allowance for professional development in the amount of $250 annually. This allowance may be used for educational activities to maintain a professional license; luncheons provided by professional trade organizations; exam prep or testing fees to procure a professional license; or for educational pursuits that support the goals of the company.

Plant Solutions, Inc provides a time allowance for professional education equal to 32 hours annually for full time employees. This allowance may be used for maintenance of professional licenses, volunteering, and educational pursuits that forward the mission of the company.