

5 LOCAL BENEFIT

5.1 LOCAL CONTROL

Macro Design Studio is a 100% Italian company, the owner and the employees are living and working within the communities where the business and its activities are located. For this reason, the organization have a direct relationship to the communities that serves and the accountability that comes when the owner and stakeholders reside in the places they impact.

All the Macro Design Studio profits are taxed in Italy and therefore all of its profits are invested back into the Italian economy.

5.2 LOCAL SOURCING

Macro Design Studio is an Italian company and with the intent to support Italian community and economy share the resources with other companies in our country. As a primarily service based organization we do not purchase many products and materials. However, whatever we do purchase we source locally whenever that is possible. We believe that local sourcing is an important component of healthy and sustainable communities.
