

FARR ASSOCIATES

LIVING WAGE POLICY

In order to provide stability and security for all of its employees and their families, Farr Associates is committed to providing a living wage. A living wage is the measure of compensation to cover all essential costs and provide an adequate standard of living for an employee and their families. Living wage accounts for expenses such as food, housing, health care, and child care. Farr Associates is committed to providing 20% higher than the identified living wage for the city of Chicago for all of its full time employees.

Cristine M. Perez-Olson, Operations Manager