

Worker Happiness

Energy Opportunities promotes worker happiness and tries to create and maintain a work environment conducive to happiness. We are concerned about our employees and their families and try to create an appropriate work-life balance to enhance worker happiness. Energy Opportunities allows flexible work schedules to accommodate employee non-work demands. The owner maintains an open door policy which means employees are encouraged to discuss problems or concerns with the owner and in this way the owner is able to assess worker happiness and make improvements that enhance worker happiness.
