

evolveEA believes in investing in its community and in its people through volunteering in local communities. Employees are encouraged to volunteer in their community and will receive up to 16 hours of unpaid time off for volunteer activities. Volunteering provides valuable community services and strengthens a community in many ways by supporting families, improving schools, supporting youth, and beautifying the community. Volunteering is to be completed with recognized charitable organizations.